

Current Economic Conditions

Tom Rosewall – Reserve Bank of Australia

An overview of the Reserve Bank of Australia's view of the current international and national economic conditions

Join the Tasmanian Branch of the Economic Society of Australia for a presentation from the Reserve Bank of Australia on the current economic conditions. Tom Rosewall is the Reserve Bank of Australia's Senior Representative for Victoria and Tasmania. He is responsible for providing advice on the Australian economy using information gathered through meetings with contacts across major industries, the public sector and community groups. Tom has a decade of policy experience at the Reserve Bank, including in the Financial Markets Group, where he was responsible for providing advice on developments in global financial markets and central bank policy. He has also worked in the Economic Group, where he was responsible for monitoring and forecasting conditions in the domestic and international economies. Tom holds a Master of Science (Economics) from the London School of Economics.

Date: Tuesday 23 February 2016

Time: 5.00 pm for a 5.15 pm start

Location: Murray Room, Treasury Building, 21 Murray Street Hobart

Cost: Free. Nibbles and orange juice will be provided with beer and wine available at cost.

RSVPs are essential to ensure adequate seating: admin@esatas.org.au